

Prof. Dr. Jonathan F. Galloway

Born in Washington, D.C. on December 2, 1939.

Parents: George Barnes and Eilene Marie Galloway.

Graduated from St. Albans School in 1957. Graduated from Swarthmore College with Honors in 1961. Ph.D. from Columbia University in 1967.

Married Judith Collier Wells in 1964. Three children – Matthew, Jennifer and Annie.

Teaching career in political science and international relations at Lake Forest College, 1966-2002. Retired as the Irwin L. & Fern D. Young Presidential Chair.

Trustee Award for Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership, 1992.

Elected three times (1985, 1987, 1989) as Second Ward Alderman in the City of Lake Forest, Illinois.

Author of The Politics and Technology of Satellite Communications (1972) and over fifty articles on, inter alia, space law and policy, American Foreign Policy and international political economy.

Member of IISL, IAA, ABILA, ASIL, and AIAA.